Connolly Wins Congressional Primary

Fairfax chair will face Republican businessman in fall election.

BY JULIA O'DONOGHUE
THE CONNECTION

Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Chairman Gerry Connolly (D-At-large) won his congressional district's Democratic primary June 10, capturing approximately 58 percent of the vote and more support than the three other candidates combined.

The win means Connolly will face Fairfax County businessman Keith Fimian for an open seat in Virginia's 11th Congressional District this fall. Incumbent Rep. Tom Davis (R) announced his retirement earlier this year and Fimian, who has never run for public office before, is the Republican nominee.

"Voters in the 11th District have an opportunity to change the direction of our country," said Connolly during his victory speech at the Police Association Hall in Fairfax.

If the chairman wins the general election, Connolly could contribute to a net gain for Democrats in the U.S. House of Representatives overall.

The high stakes of the race have led to some national attention already. After winning last night's election, Connolly received phone calls from the congressional Democrats' Majority Leader, U.S. Rep. Steny Hoyer (Md.), and the head of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, U.S. Rep. Chris Van Hollen (Md.)

IN THE PRIMARY, Connolly received 14,228 votes. His closest competitor, former Rep. Leslie Byrne, collected 8,196 votes, or 33.35 percent of the total ballots.

Iraq War veteran Doug Denny won 1,508 votes, or 6.13 percent of the total. Physical therapist Lori Alexander garnered 638 or 2.59 percent of the votes.

Of the three localities included in the 11th

Congressional District, the county chairman ran strongest in Fairfax County, where he received 60.48 percent of the vote. He also won in the City of Fairfax, where he received 54.76 percent of all ballots cast.

Byrne, considered Connolly's most formidable foe, won a larger percentage of the votes cast in Prince William County, with 45.07 percent to Connolly's 43.94 percent.

But overall, voter turn out was much higher in Fairfax County and Fairfax City than Prince William. Approximately 7 percent of Fairfax County's active voters and 8 percent of Fairfax City's active voters turned up to participate in the primary, compared to just 2.5 percent in Prince William County.

The lion's share of 11th Congressional District voters also live in Fairfax County. Those residents account for 290,000 of the 446,073 active voters in the district.

who participated in the Democratic primary said they supported Connolly because of his performance as county chairman over the last four years.

"Connolly is like a [Lyndon Johnson] figure. He can get things done and move stuff along," said Jonathan Ottke, a Burke Democrat voting at Lake Braddock Secondary School.

Connolly, himself, has emphasized his performance as an elected official, noting Fairfax County has been recognized as the best managed county in the country during his tenure. The locality has also received national attention for its school system and enjoys the lowest crime rate of the nation's 100 largest jurisdictions.

Supervisor Sharon Bulova (D-Braddock), who serves as vice chairman of the Board of Supervisors, said she wasn't surprised by Connolly's strong showing in Fairfax County.

"I think Gerry has been an outstanding chairman. I expected him to win by very

Dwight Freemont Day Jr., of Fairfax Station, is charged federally with conspiracy to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine, according to an affidavit filed in U.S. District Court in Alexandria.

WWW.CONNECTIONNEWSPAPERS.COM

Day is accused of distributing cocaine from his house as well as his business, KMN Sheet Metal in Lorton, according to the federal affidavit.

His business grosses more than $10 million in sales annually, according to the business Web site.

His 5-acre house and property, in the 6600 block of Rutledge Drive in Fairfax Station, has been assessed earlier this year for more than $1.3 million. It was purchased in 2001 for $970,000.

One source, according to the federal affidavit, claims that Day has provided the source with cocaine about 300 times during the last seven years, including a gram on July 24, 2007 in Burke, which agents tested to have a purity of 46.3 percent.

Another source claims Day sold cocaine to the source from 2001-03. Another source purchased one ounce of cocaine from Day for $1,500 every two weeks the past two years, according to the affidavit.

Fairfax County Police and the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency identified a drug distribution conspiracy and illegal gambling business centered around Day in 2007, according to federal court documents.

While executing a court-ordered wiretap of Day's cellular phone in early 2008, agents heard Day "on several occasions taking and making bets with numerous subjects," according to affidavits filed by local police in Fairfax County Circuit Court.

"It became apparent to your affiant that

Albo Rewarded for Opposition

Sharon M. McDonald, the president of the Commissioners of the Revenue Association of Virginia, formally expressed her gratitude to Del. David B. Albo (R-42). Albo was recognized for his opposition to recent state budget cuts that would have had a damaging effect on localities throughout the Commonwealth and their ability to generate revenue.

The office of the Commissioner of Revenue's job is to identify and assess all personal property, including the real estate of many localities, ensuring compliance with state and local tax laws, issuing licenses to businesses in many localities, administering fiduciary taxes like the meals tax and providing assistance in many localities with the filing of state income tax. The proposed cuts, which Albo opposed, would have eliminated 6 percent of state funding for all Commissioners of Revenue budgets. This would have led to a loss of essential personnel and county/city services.

New Library Welcomes Public

Fairfax County Public Libraries is opening the new Burke Centre Library to the public on Saturday, June 28, with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 11 a.m. The new branch is located at 5935 Freds Oak Road in Burke.

On hand for the ribbon cutting will be Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Chairman Gerald E. Connolly (D-At-large), Supervisor Sharon Bulova (D-Braddock), Library Board of Trustees Chair Charles Fegan and Library Director Edwin "Sam" Clay III. During the day, entertainment will be provided by Virginia Bronze, a handbell ensemble; the Batala Percussion Band; and Petunia, the balloon twister.

In the 16,720-square foot building, patrons will find a 75,000-item collection, 24 computer work stations, a flexible meeting room to accommodate two groups of 35 at a time or one larger group, a nine-seat quiet study room, an eight-seat conference room and a group study room.

Grimm + Parker Architects of McLean designed the library, which was built as a green building. Following a policy adopted by the Board of Supervisors, the library was constructed according to the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design program (LEED).

The Burke Centre Library was funded through the 2004 Bond referendum at a cost of $12,576,000.

Getting To Know ...

Colvin Wang, who will compete in the Summer Olympics.

BY LEAH KIEFF
THE CONNECTION

Colvin Wang, a sophomore at Thomas Jefferson High School and a resident of Fairfax, is headed to Beijing, China this summer to compete in the Olympic Games in the sport of Wushu. Wushu or Kungfu, as it is sometimes referred to, is the national sport of China, and while not an official Olympic sport, it is therefore a part of this year's Olympics. Wang will stay in the Olympic village and compete in a separate competition.

"Every time I tell someone I have to explain how it's not official Olympics and I don't even know what it is really," said Wang. "Also, when I tell them I'm going for Wushu they don't even know what it is or if they do they're like, 'Oh, Jackie Chan,' that's so fake."

Wang began studying Wushu when he was 6 and now trains 17 hours a week, 2 1/2 hours per day. He will compete in the spear and straight sword competition, as one of six members of the U.S. Olympic team. During the World Wushu Championships, Wang placed fourth, however the Chinese were not present. Wang hopes that the inclusion of Wushu this year will help the sport to gain international notoriety.

"I'm not nervous, I'll probably be nervous when I get there, because competitions are always like that," said Wang. "I'm excited to compete, showing off is pretty cool." Wang plays down his achievements. He dislikes it when the other students mention it at school.

Since Wang began Wushu, he has attended O-Mei Wushu Center in Merrifield and has been coached by Xiaolin Lu. "From 6-years-old at the beginning level he was winning, he was always competing at the adult level, first third then first eventually," said Lu. "Even with losses he kept trying. Every year, he's been the champion for his levels. He never says he's tired. If I say it's not good, he does it again. He's really good at concentrating. He's different from

Are you excited to be going to the Olympics? I'm not excited that much, what is there to be excited about? One reason I'm not excited is I'm not going to win. I'm excited to meet all the other athletes; I'm excited to meet the other Wushu athletes, because I admire them.

How do you feel about going to the Olympics?

I'm happy to be going, it makes me special, not many people go to the Olympics in their lives. A little bit of fame is pretty nice. It makes you kind of proud of yourself when people know you for your accomplishments who you don't know.

How do you balance your classes at Thomas Jefferson High School with your training schedule?

I do the least I can do to get by, like in Biology. I have a 93.5 and that's an A it doesn't matter if you have a 99 or a 93.5 it's all an A.

Connolly Scores Primary Victory

large margins in Fairfax County," said Bulova.

OTHERS EXPECTED a stronger showing by Byrne, who has represented parts of the district in the House of Representatives, State Senate and House of Delegates. Connolly beat Byrne by a little over 24 points.

"I was surprised by the margin. With this low of a turnout, I didn't think it would be this clear," said Del. Mark Sickles (D-43), a Connolly supporter who represents the Franconia area in Virginia's General Assembly.

Internal polls for the Connolly campaign had always showed about a 20-point difference between the two candidates, but even members of the chairman's campaign staff had thought the race would be tighter.

"Our polling showed it, but I thought the margin would close," said Celinda Lake, whose company, Lake Research Partners, conducted field polls for Connolly's campaign.

Several people speculated that Byrne's negative campaign against Connolly could have done more harm than good for her campaign.

Byrne and other groups supporting her campaign sent several pieces of direct mail to Democratic voters that bashed the chairman, particularly for his part-time employment in community relations at Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC), a government contractor that has received business as a result of the War in Iraq.

"When you attack somebody for being a

"I think Gerry has been an outstanding chairman. I expected him to win by very large margins in Fairfax County."

— Supervisor Sharon Bulova (D-Braddock) government contractor in this area, it will most certainly backfire," said Sickles.

Some outside groups have also attacked Connolly on behalf of Byrne over the past several weeks.

A few of Virginia's most prominent Democratic political bloggers backed Byrne and criticized Connolly by trying to link him to Davis and other Republicans over the past several weeks.

Many Democrats said they crossed a line by demonizing the county chairman in recent posts.

"I truly think that the bloggers, particularly Raising Kaine and Not Larry Sabato, hurt Leslie Byrne in this campaign. They posted mistruths and misrepresentations. It was revolting in my book," said George Burke, chairman of the Democrat's 11th Congressional District committee.

Others were upset with EMILY's List, a national political action committee that tries to help women who support abortion rights get elected to office. The group contributed at least $23,550 to Byrne's efforts and paid for several negative mail pieces against Connolly.

"It's hard enough to see that stuff in the mail, to know that your neighbors are seeing it too ... But EMILY's List embarrassed me as a woman. How can women around the country make assumptions about my husband?" said Smitty Connolly, the candidate's wife.

CONNOLLY ALSO sent negative mail pieces, including ones that attempted to tie Byrne to alcohol and tobacco lobbyists and all the negative campaigning may have turned voters off.

Those residents who usually participate in Democratic primaries said their mailboxes were flooded with fliers from both campaigns over the last several weeks. On primary day, many said they would be happy to see the end of the race.

"I am sick and tired of politics as usual. Negative campaigning is not something I am in favor of," said Burke resident Len Heimowitz, who called some of the direct mail he had received "awful."

Springfield resident Christine Stark said Byrne and Connolly, who promoted themselves as being "pro-environment," could have done a lot of good by not sending their "colored, non-recyclable fliers" through the mail.

Still, others said they were prepared for things to get nasty.

"I don't think anybody was surprised this campaign ended up negative," said Burke.

Many Democratic activists are trying to look forward to the general election in the fall, where they said Connolly has a very good chance of winning.

But the Democratic nominee cautioned his supporters not to be too confident. Connolly has spent most of the $653,518 he raised on the primary and Fimian, who is personally wealthy, still has most of his $957,263 available.

"Don't believe it is going to be easy," said Connolly of his race against the Republican.

St. Stephen's & St. Agnes in Alexandria and H-B Woodlawn in Arlington each won four Cappies during the three-hour ceremony at The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Westfield, Robinson and West Potomac each won three.

The Best Play award went to Woodlawn for "As Bees In Honey Drown," and Best Musical went to Walt Whitman for "Aida." This Cappies Gala was dedicated to the program's co-founder, Bill Strauss, who died of cancer in December at age 60. A published author and playwright, himself, his vision — along with that of co-founder Judy Bowns — was to celebrate students of theater and journalism via the Cappies, or Critics and Awards Program.

Strauss was honored with a special tribute during Sunday's gala, and his wife, Janie — a member of the Fairfax County School Board — was presented with an award called, "The Show Must Go On."

More Reasons for Change

Price of gas, 'Code Red' add reasons to change behavior.

After days of intense heat, we begin this week with a "Code Red" air quality day, meaning that breathing the air is "unhealthy for all individuals."

On a "Code Red" day, no one should stay outside or exert themselves outdoors any longer than necessary, according to federal guidelines. At particular risk are active children and adults, and people with lung diseases, such as asthma.

EDITORIAL The primary causes of air pollution in Northern Virginia are vehicle emissions and pollution from power plants here and to the west.

Approximately 60-70 percent of the pollutants that cause ground-level ozone are created from vehicles, lawn mowers, other garden equipment and common household products, according to the Washington Metropolitan Council of Governments.

The price of gas has already motivated more commuters in the area to turn to public transportation. On predicted "Code Red" days, local bus service is free, which should provide even more incentive to see if you can use transit for all or part of your commute.

Chance To Address Transportation Plan

To the Editor:

On June 23, the General Assembly returns to Richmond for its perennial session on transportation. At issue will be Gov. Kaine's (D) proposal to raise state taxes for road and transit projects.

Based on reaction from House Republicans, the governor's proposal will have a short shelf life. Regardless, the Assembly gathering is important. For the first time, legislators are confronting travel demands in the era of $4 a gallon gasoline. Everybody buckle up.

Since the Byrd governorship in the 1920s, the Commonwealth has built and maintained a modern highway system financed largely by a state gas tax. This system has been a phenomenal success. Unlike our cousins in Maryland and Delaware, Virginians can drive across the state without paying tolls.

Now this era is coming to a close. Our revenues for transportation are drying up. By 2018, nearly all state funds will be solely for road maintenance. New construction will disappear, a major blow to Northern Virginia that receives over 25 percent of new funding. New transit projects will remain stalled, even while usage is at record levels.

Virginians are willing to pay more to get better service. But there has to be a bigger picture than just "the sky is falling" rhetoric coming from Richmond. Here's a vision and some simple principles to live by:

1. Stop Using General Tax Funds: It is asinine to make transportation a general obli-

The price of gas is excruciating, and takes a far higher toll on the working poor, but at $4 a gallon and above, we're all motivated to seek conservation and alternatives. As businesses and individuals work to save money, the environment and air quality will also benefit. There's a chance that such measures could ease traffic as well.

ON BAD AIR quality days, children, older people and individuals with heart or respiratory ailments should reduce outdoor activities. Even healthy individuals should limit strenuous outdoor work and exercise.

Here are a few more suggestions to help air quality:

- ❖ Limit driving and when possible, combine trips or work from home.
- ❖ Use area bus and rail lines or carpool.
- ❖ Avoid mowing lawns with gasoline-powered motors.
- ❖ Refuel vehicles after dusk; avoid idling.
- ❖ Conserve electricity, keep air conditioning no lower than 78 degrees, turn off unneeded lights.

For the air quality forecast for Northern Virginia and links to maps, see <http://www.deq.virginia.gov/airquality>.

gation on Virginia taxpayers when one-in-four highway users are from out-of-state. Treat roads as a separate cost item to be financed and paid for by transportation users, either via gas tax or tolling. Leave the general fund for education and law enforcement. Let the users of our roads pay the cost for the burden they create. That market, not state taxpayers, will then dictate the most efficient solution

LETTERS

2. Reward Localities that Promote Smart Growth: Virginia should reserve new construction funds to localities that promote smart growth. That means planned mixed-used development with transit and restrictions on developers that use open land to build houses and shopping centers. Localities that simply sprawl? Don't reward them with more road funds.

3. Focus Funding on Transit: We need more and better rail service augmented by rapid bus. That is the reality of Fairfax County in the 21st century. Locally, that means more trains and better service on Metro and VRE, with rapid bus linking those stations to the outer suburbs. On a larger scale, we should in the next five years develop a high-speed rail link between Norfolk, Richmond and Washington, D.C., with key stops in Northern Virginia. Out of every dollar we spend on transportation solutions here, we need to spend at least 50 cents on transit. This is a vision we must adopt to survive in this brave new world of scarce petroleum resources.

Consequences of Bad Air

While some people say they might consider moving out of the region because of the traffic congestion, for others the choice to move might be necessary to save their health.

Consider the risks:

❖ One out of every three people is at a higher risk of experiencing ozone-related health effects, including active, otherwise healthy children who spend a lot of the summer playing outdoors.

❖ People of all ages who are active outdoors are at increased risk because during physical activity, ozone penetrates deeper into the part of the lungs that are more vulnerable.

❖ Ozone can aggravate asthma. When ozone levels are high more people with asthma have attacks that require a doctor's attention or the use of additional medication. One reason this happens is that ozone makes people more sensitive to allergens, the most common triggers of asthma attacks.

❖ People with respiratory diseases that make their lungs more vulnerable to ozone may experience health effects earlier and at lower ozone levels than less sensitive individuals.

❖ Ozone can irritate the respiratory system, causing coughing, throat irritation, and/or an uncomfortable sensation in the chest.

❖ Ozone can increase susceptibility to respiratory infections.

❖ Ozone can inflame and damage the lining of the lungs. Within a few days, the damaged cells are shed and replaced — much like the skin peels after a sunburn. Animal studies suggest that if this type of inflammation happens repeatedly over a long time period (months, years, a lifetime), lung tissue may become permanently scarred, resulting in less lung elasticity and permanent loss of lung function.

Concerning Airline User Fees

To the Editor:

Passenger complaints about the recent announcement by a major airline that it will now charge $15 for each checked piece of luggage miss the important point. The charge is in the nature of a "user" fee for a service that is not required of those passengers who do not check baggage. Why, in fairness, should a customer who checks no baggage have to subsidize the passenger who checks baggage that then must be handled by at least two employees, particularly since the added baggage adds to the load of the aircraft, increasing the fuel consumption of that aircraft? Fairness requires that dissimilarly situated passengers be treated dissimilarly.

Businessman Arrested in Cocaine Sting

Dwight Day was operating an illegal gambling/book making operation," according to the Fairfax court documents. "Your Affiant also monitored Dwight Day taking numerous orders from subject and placing orders with suppliers for quantities of cocaine."

Fairfax County Police arrested Day on March 28, 2008 for distribution of cocaine.

He is currently scheduled to face a preliminary hearing in Fairfax County General District Court later this month.

Day was also charged in federal court on May 21. According to federal court records, his bond motion was rejected because he "presents a risk of danger to the community due to the nature of the charged offense; criminal history and unknown information regarding illegal drug use."

At the time of this story, Day has not been charged with gambling activity, according to Fairfax County Circuit Court, General District Court and federal court records.

INTERCEPTION OF Day's cell-phone calls on Feb. 11, 2008 provided information that a source purchased cocaine from Day's resi-

Six Sources

Confidential Source No. 1 — Arrested with a small amount of cocaine. Motivated to cooperate with Fairfax County Police out of fear for safety. Has known Day for eight years. Obtained cocaine from Day for seven years.

Source No. 2 — Convicted in U.S. District Court in Alexandria for conspiracy to distribute cocaine. Initially cooperated in hope of obtaining a reduced sentence. Met Day in 2001. Casual friend and supplier of cocaine to Day.

Source No. 3 — Convicted for possession of a controlled dangerous substance in Montgomery County, Md. Has been confidential source for DEA since 1986. Provides information to DEA in exchange for money. Has known Day and his ex-wife for a number of years.

Source No. 4 — Arrested in 2001 and recently convicted of his second federal drug offense. Has assisted DEA in investigating illegal drug crimes, resulting in conviction of more than 20 people and seizure of hundreds of thousands of dollars in assets. Currently being compensated by DEA.

Source No. 5 — Recently charged with conspiracy to distribute cocaine in Eastern District of Virginia and entered plea agreement. Hoping for sentence reduction.

Source No. 6 — Pleaded guilty to fraud-related offenses in Eastern District of Virginia. Assisting U.S. in hope of sentence reduction.

Fairfax County Police arrested this source. He or she claims to have purchased 1 ounce of cocaine from Day for $1,500 every two weeks the past two years.

Agents claim Day's cocaine source is Richard Moomau, who is also charged in the same case, according to the federal affidavit.

On March 28, more court-ordered interception of Day's cell-phone calls provided information that Moomau was going to provide Day with cocaine at Day's business. Around 1:30 p.m. that day, police observed Moomau enter Day's business and leave two minutes later. During a subsequent traffic stop of Moomau, Fairfax Police seized $2,800 from Moomau, according to court documents.

That same day, around 4:30 p.m., police learned from monitoring Day's cell phone that another source was going to purchase cocaine from Day. After the source left Day's business, Fairfax Police stopped the source's vehicle and seized 1 ounce of cocaine, according to the federal affidavit. Day's ex-wife was named as the source of that information, according to Fairfax County Circuit Court documents.

"Joyce Day stated that she had just purchased an ounce of cocaine from her ex-husband Dwight Day and that she had purchased it for $1,500. Joyce Day further stated that she currently does not work and her only source of income is a monthly payment of $12,000 in alimony that she gets from Dwight Day," according to the Fairfax County affidavit.

On the same day, Fairfax County Police arrested Dwight Day, who had $5,300 in cash, for distribution of cocaine. Dwight Day's vehicle was later searched and approximately one-half ounce of cocaine was seized from his briefcase in the trunk of his vehicle, according to the federal affidavit.

Police executed search warrants at Dwight Day's residence and his business, and agents seized approximately $270,000 and five rifles. According to the federal affidavit, Day is a convicted felon and a regular cocaine user, and is therefore prohibited from possessing firearms.

Day founded KMN Sheet Metal in 1992.

THE CONNECTION

While ice cream lovers have multiple places to purchase their favorite frozen treats, from fast-food stores to nationally-known chains, the Fairfax area has several "mom and pop" outlets that harken back to the corner ice cream shops of long ago.

Peterson's Ice Cream Depot, found on 7150 Main St. in Clifton, has been open since April 2007 and is run by the town's mayor Tom Peterson and his wife Jean. "Mayor Peterson wanted to open an authentic ice cream parlor with a family atmosphere," said Ashley Whitehead, Peterson's employee and a Clifton native.

Within the shop, several concoctions can be found, including a new attraction, the ice cream wheel. Whenever a train passes through the town and the whistle blows, the first customer in line has the chance to spin the wheel and receives the item the wheel lands on for free. Items on the wheel include free toppings, small shakes or scoops of ice cream.

Children are also given the opportunity to create their own mix of flavors and toppings, and even name it after themselves. This can be seen directly above the ice cream wheel, with the current week's menu titled "Catherine's Treats." Peterson's has yet to undergo competition with major ice cream chains, as a strong town following and the large number of out-of-town customers steadily increase.

Dairy Bar on 6641 Arlington Blvd. in Falls Church. Decorated with a 1950s theme and specializing in custard making, the Frozen Dairy Bar overflows with historic content. Four generations of families have owned the property since the 1920s, until it was officially opened in the mid 1950s.

The third generation and current owners, the Aiken family, bought the shop in 1999 giving it a facelift while still remaining true to its historical integrity by offering its classic flavors of chocolate, vanilla and strawberry. In 2000, the Frozen Dairy Bar expanded to include Boardwalk Pizza in the shop.

"The shop is very much a part of our local community. We get plenty of stories of couples who met in line in our shop and have been married for 40 years," said Michael Natoli, general manager of the Frozen Dairy Bar, pointing to various family pictures on the walls.

The Frozen Dairy Bar strives to maintain historic value in several ways, such as using the original custard machine that was used in the first shop over 50 years ago.

"We go the extra mile here. We make our high end custard and waffle cones fresh each day," said Natoli. For over six decades, Frozen Dairy Bar is another family owned business that has remained strong and successful.

The Sweet Life Café on 3950 Chain Bridge Road in Fairfax is another family run café, currently owned by Maureen Lederer. The café is hidden within a large house that dates back to the late 1800s. Opened in summer of 2006, the café specializes in ice cream, but serves a full menu as well.

The main attraction within the café is the large Jelly Belly Jellybean machine, which customers can use to top their ice cream.

"Kids love to use the jellybean machine; the ice cream changes from a snack to an activity," said Sweet Life Café employee Randall Colville, who is the nephew of the current owner. Seating is offered inside the café with large leather seats, and outside the café with a view of the City of Fairfax.

Finally, Woody's Ice Cream, which is located on 4005 Stonewall Ave. in Fairfax, is another locally owned ice cream shop. Opened in 1998 and named after its owner Woody Lashly, Woody's is found directly next to the restaurant Carlos O'Kelley's.

"Woody himself built this shop by hand. He wanted a classic ice cream shop with that vintage feel," said Woody's employee George Greco.

Woody's menu offers traditional and generally well-known items, such as milkshakes, banana splits, strawberry shortcake, root beer floats and hot fudge brownies.

"We know when customers crave our ice cream, so we are open from April 1 to Oct. 1," said Greco. "When it hits July, we've got lines down the street. There's something really satisfying about ice cream on a summer night. It hits the spot."

"We get plenty of stories of couples who met in line in our shop and have been married for 40 years."

— Michael Natoli

While it may seem like a dwindling business to some, family run ice cream shops are still as successful as they were decades ago, based on family traditions, lifelong customers and the desire to return to the good ol' days.

Bruins' Streak Snapped in State Semifinals

Three-run sixth propels Colonial Forge over Lake Braddock, 7-6.

BY PAUL FROMMELT
THE CONNECTION

This season, the Lake Braddock baseball team didn't make a habit of losing. The Bruins' historic 2008 season saw them win 20 consecutive games, a Patriot District title and their second Northern Region crown in three years. All of Lake Braddock's success this year made their 7-6 loss to Colonial Forge in the AAA Virginia state semifinals

AAA VHSL BASEBALL all the harder to swallow.

"It was swept right out from beneath us," said senior Shane Halley in the Bruins' dug-out after the game. "This is like salt in a wound. This is bad."

Facing a 4-run deficit after two innings, the Bruins calmly took the lead in the top of the fourth with a 5-run inning that included a two-out, three-RBI double by senior catcher Steven Lindemuth. The Bruins collected three hits and walked twice in the inning to chase Colonial Forge starting pitcher Garrett Marin. Senior Brenden Daley hit a solo home run that hugged the left field foul pole to put the Bruins up 6-4 in the top of the fifth inning.

After Haley pitched 1 1/3rd scoreless innings, Lake Braddock head coach Jody Rutherford brought in junior Brian Derner, the Bruins' most consistent pitcher this year, to close out the game. Despite a large bandage over his left eye, covering an injury suffered in pregame warm-ups, Derner pitched a scoreless bottom of the fourth and retired the Eagles in order in the fifth inning.

In the sixth inning, however, everything fell apart.

With one out, Colonial Forge senior Nick Lanciault stroked a double and seniors Jason Kittell and Levi Hyamns drew walks off of Derner.

"Those walks were just some good at bats," said Rutherford, who said that he never entertained the idea of taking his junior ace out of the game. "He was our best. We were going to go down with our best. If I am going to lose, I am going to lose with my best pitcher."

The Eagles cut the Bruins' lead to one when senior Shayne Paskanik scored Lanciault on a groundout. The Eagles' next batter, junior Taylor Guinn, hit a slow roller up the middle to give Colonial Forge the 7-6 lead.

"That was not the way that we wanted to go out," said senior Shannon Mark. "It's just not the way that we wanted to go out."

Colonial Forge senior Jimmy Buel retired the Bruins in order to secure the victory.

It was the Bruins' first loss since April 1. "We are just proud for our guys. We played hard all year long. There is not much that you can say to make them feel better," said Rutherford after the game. "They played with heart. They showed a lot of class and represented the program well."

And One for the Thumb: Rams Win Fifth State Title

Baxter's goal in the 89th minute gives Robinson a 2-1 win.

BY PAUL FROMMELT
THE CONNECTION

Fighting 94-degree weather and an impressive offensive attack by Battlefield, it took two overtimes and an 89th minute goal by junior LeighAnne Baxter before the Robinson Rams could celebrate their fifth AAA Virginia state title with a 2-1 win over the Bobcats.

"Everybody was expecting us to do well this year and it was a weight on their shoulders. It is a relief now to live up to the expectations that everybody had," said

AAA VHSL GIRLS SOCCER

When Rike walked into Robinson on the first day of school last fall, he ran into Robinson Director of Student Activities Mike McGurk.

"We are going to win the state this year, right?" Rike remembers McGurk asking.

"We are certainly going to try," responded Rike.

Whether the Rams' DSA was joking or not, Rike knew that the expectations were there for his Rams this year. After watching neighborhood rival Lake Braddock take the AAA Virginia state title the past two years, the Rams began to feel the pressure to win their first state crown since 2002.

"It is something that we dealt with all year long," said Rike.

Entering the season, Rike, a recent VHSL Hall of Fame inductee, had led the Rams to eight Northern Region titles, eight Virginia AAA state semifinals appearances, five state finals appearances and four state titles.

After adding another Northern Region title last month and beating First Colonial and Woodbridge in the first two rounds of the state tournament, the Rams found themselves on the cusp of living up to all of those expectations against Battlefield on Saturday afternoon at Westfield High School.

From the first whistle, it became apparent that the Rams and Bobcats would be battling the sun as well as each other.

"I won't forget this one for a long time because of the heat," said Rike. "I was dying and I'm not talking from the tension, I'm talking from the heat. I can't imagine the kids on the field." The Rams and Bobcats combined for 10 shots in the first half, with none finding the back of the net. At halftime, Rike made sure to focus on the Rams being able to keep their composure.

"Both teams were playing in the same heat and both teams were feeling the same effect. I basically said that whoever made the first mistake was probably going to lose the game," he said. "If something happens, don't lose your composure."

In the 67th minute, it was the Rams that made the same mistake. Battlefield senior Jessica Jewell got behind the Rams' defense and received a lob from senior Alyson Shaughnessy, then placed the ball past Robinson senior goalkeeper Katherine Yount.

Just 23 seconds later, the Rams responded when sophomore Stephanie Johnson's cross somehow found its way into the back of the Bobcats net.

Just like that, the game was again tied. "It says a lot about the kids," said Rike of the Rams' ability to quickly respond. "There is a lot of fight in these kids."

Regulation ended with the same 1-1 score, as did the first five minute overtime.

"I don't think that the girls wanted to go into sudden death. They had enough of the heat," said Rike.

Receiving a ball from senior Kristen Smith in the 4th minute of the second overtime, Baxter made sure that the Rams wouldn't have to go into sudden death.

"I was just hoping that it went in," she said after the game. "We just came out there and did what we had to do."

Drew Courtney: The King of Virginia Tennis

Robinson senior wins two more AAA Virginia state crowns to bring high school career total to 10.

BY PAUL FROMMELT
THE CONNECTION

Just days after winning his third consecutive AAA Virginia state boys tennis singles title and fourth consecutive doubles title, Robinson senior Drew Courtney lists the Robinson boys tennis team's 2006 and the squad's title this year as his two favorite moments of his high school career.

"Winning the state title for the first time in school history, that was an awesome experience," said Courtney. "Winning the team title this year, I'll remember that the most. It was so close with so many ups and down. Emotionally, it was the craziest thing that I have been involved with."

AAA VHSL BOYS TENNIS

As for his individual titles, they're nice, but the team's titles are special.

"High school tennis is all about the team. Sharing it with all my friends and family and teammates," he said. "I love winning individual titles, but there is nothing like a team title."

With the Rams' third consecutive state team title won a week earlier, however, last Saturday's tournament finals at Jefferson District Park were all about Courtney. The Rams' senior easily dispatched Cox's Ian Frazier, 6-2, 6-1, to win his third state singles crown on Saturday morning.

Courtney was not done, however, as the senior grabbed a quick shower and lunch before joining Stephen Hardy in the boys doubles final against Mills Godwin's Kyle Parker and Kevin Calhoun. In a hotly contested match with temperatures reaching the mid-90s, Courtney and Hardy took care of Parker and Calhoun to win the pair's second consecutive doubles title. It was Courtney's fourth consecutive doubles title as he teamed with Mike Smith in 2005 and 2006.

"It is definitely hard to know that it is over," said Courtney of his high school career. "It was an amazing experience."

Courtney ends his career with 10 state titles – three singles, three team and four doubles titles.

"I knew that the team could have success and if I worked hard, I could continue success, but to actually do it is two different things," he said.

Courtney, who will play tennis for the University of Virginia next year, will travel down to the Charlottesville campus over the summer to work out with some of his teammates.

"I'm not nervous at all," he said. "I am eager and excited to go down there and bring more success."

Rams Fall Short of State Title Robinson boys soccer braves heat but falls to Deep Run, 1-0.

BY JOHN C. MARCARIO
THE CONNECTION

Robinson did not have enough energy, or luck, in trying to win its first AAA Virginia state boys soccer title, losing 1-0 to Deep Run at Westfield High School on June 7. The Wildcats scored the game's only goal in the 12th minute as senior Bryan Wharton scored near the goal line after a pin-point pass from fellow senior Brian Ownby.

AAA VHSL BOYS SOCCER

The Rams offense did not get in gear until the second half as they had a handful of scoring chances, but were unable to get the equalizer. Robinson captain, senior Seth Goldman, played only 28 minutes after missing time since injuring his left knee in the first round of the regional tournament.

"You can't say enough about our team. We worked hard and fought to the last minute. I am proud to be a Robinson Ram," said Goldman, who played with a slight limp.

The Wildcats recorded their 17th shutout this season as the Rams were held to one goal or less for the ninth time this year. Robinson had three shots on goal while Deep Run had four. Ram goalkeeper Adrian Dominguez made the save of the game in the second half as he stonewalled Ownby who got past two defenders and had a one on one opportunity against Dominguez. The game was played in extreme heat – near 100 degrees temperatures. Players and coaches said that had an affect on the outcome. Robinson's 1-0 semifinal win over Thomas Dale the day before was close throughout and played during the afternoon as a heat warning was in affect in Fairfax County. Meanwhile Deep Run had an easy 6-0 win over Kecoughtan, as several starters rested in the second half. The game was played during the evening hours.

"They got the one goal and we were down and we put out heads down," Robinson sophomore Alex Makcumbi, who scored the game winning goals in the teams first two state tournament games, including a 1-0 victory over Cox in the opening round.

Makcumbi and Goldman both added that making it to the state finals was a major building block from where they came from earlier in the season.

"For the program, it's just ridiculous. I am glad to leave my senior year going to states," Goldman said.

Added Makcumbi: "At the beginning of the season we played bad and everyone thought we were the underdogs. Then we beat Westfield and we did some big things. We didn't win districts, we didn't win regionals, but we came this far, overall it was a good season."

Robinson head coach Jac Cicala failed in his bid to win his fifth state title, having won four with Lake Braddock having won back-to-back in 1982-83 and 1987-88.

The supervisors voted to share best environmental, educational and cultural practices with the Korean locality at its June 2 meeting. The partnership would not require the expenditure of county funds, outside of e-mails and phone calls, according to supervisor Sharon Bulova.

Songpa-gu has a population of approximately 620,000 people spread over 34 square kilometers. It has four major subway lines and three major expressways near it and was the site of the main stadium for the 1988 Olympic Games.

The Mayor of Songpa-gu, Kim Young Soon, is aware of the large Korean-American community in Fairfax County and expressed an interest in becoming Fairfax's sister city in January. Fairfax County Public Schools has also been enthusiastic about the relationship, said Bulova.

Fairfax May Join Law Suit over Prisoners

Fairfax County may sue Virginia if the commonwealth insists on renting 1,000 prison beds to other states when it could use them for hundreds of its own prisoners taking up space in county and city jails.

Supervisors directed staff to look into the possibility of a lawsuit at its June 2 meeting. They also asked officials to return with the precise number of state prisoners currently housed in the local Fairfax County jail.

County chairman Gerry Connolly said he thought it cost the locality approximately $125 per day to keep a prisoner in jail and Virginia reimbursed Fairfax for approximately $14 of that cost.

"It would be interesting to know has cost us [to house state prisoners] for the last five to 10 years," said supervisor Gerry Hyland (Mount Vernon.)

Others expressed concern that the keeping state prisoners in county jails was eating up the locality's ability to house offenders.

Fairfax Schools May Pass on Hybrids

Several Fairfax County School Board members are less than enthusiastic about automatically replacing the school system's cars with hybrid vehicles, a policy change called for by Fairfax's "cool counties" initiative.

Each hybrid would cost about $10,000 more for the school system to purchase than a regular vehicle, said the schools chief operating officer Dean Tistadt. Hybrids also require special motor oil and some maintenance has to be provided by the dealer, said school board member Tessie Wilson (Braddock.)

Other board members also said several questions remain about the environmental damage hybrid vehicle waste can cause.

"This is not such a simple swap. What looks like an environmental savings, it could actually be a wash," said at-large school board member Tina Hone.

If the school board decides to forego purchasing hybrids, it will run counter to similar decisions made by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. The county government has already started buying hybrid vehicles in an effort to reduce its carbon footprint, said Fairfax County chairman Gerry Connolly in a recent debate.

"I know they are buying a lot of hybrids," said Tistadt.

Drug Coupons Present Risk?

Pharmacy coupons may lead to life-threatening situations.

BY MONA JAMALDINIAN

Buy, buy, buy! It's hard to turn on the television or open a newspaper without being bombarded with advertisements. Companies spend millions of dollars on getting the consumers' attention. Advertising may be a good way to draw attention but it has a downside as well.

Every weekend the local newspaper is filled with advertisements for Target, Rite Aid, Safeway or CVS, just to name a few. Inside these advertisements, pharmacies place a coupon designed to draw the customer away from their existing pharmacy to another pharmacy by offering a gift card ranging from $15 to $30 for each new or transferred prescription. These gift cards can be used to purchase store merchandise.

Pharmacy coupons have become so valuable that people request information leading to finding them online. Web sites are even designed to teach the consumer how to collect and use these coupons repeatedly to make money. Although these coupons sound like a great deal, using them may pose a serious health risk to the consumer.

BEFORE TRANSFERRING your prescriptions to different pharmacies, it is important to know the risks associated with using multiple pharmacies. If you are a patient who is taking three medications, you could transfer your prescriptions to three different pharmacies using three coupons and collect three gift cards. For example, you could transfer your blood pressure prescription to the pharmacy across the street and receive a $30 dollar gift card. You could take your cholesterol prescription to another pharmacy and receive a $15 gift card. Finally, you could take your heartburn prescription over to the pharmacy across town and receive a $20 gift card. At the end of the day, you could have made $65 in gift cards. This may sound like a good deal, but what you are losing is the review of all your medications by one pharmacist.

Many medications have side effects that are made worse when combined with other medications. Some medications may interfere with how other medications work. In this case, your three original prescriptions were safe to take together. The pharmacist had all of your drug information at one pharmacy and was able to determine these medications are safe for you. If the following week you go to another doctor and are prescribed an antibiotic, a pharmacist has no way to determine if all four of your medications can be safely taken together.

EACH TIME you fill a prescription at your pharmacy, the pharmacist performs certain checks to make sure your medications are safe. These checks include

- ❖ Making sure all your prescriptions are safe to take together and do not interact
- ❖ Ensuring you are not taking two of the same medications.
- ❖ Checking your drug profile to make sure you are not allergic to any ingredients in your medications
- ❖ Ensuring the prescription is written for the appropriate dose and that the directions are correct.

Each pharmacy maintains a profile of all the medications you have filled at that pharmacy. This record also shows any drug allergies you may have. This information is updated each time you fill a prescription. If, however, you fill a prescription at another pharmacy, the pharmacist does not have the complete drug record to review and this dilemma puts you at risk. In our example, taking the antibiotic and the cholesterol medication at the same time may put you at risk for liver damage.

ALL IT TAKES is one medication error and your costs to treat the problem will be much higher than the value of the coupon you cashed in earlier. One medication error can lead to additional doctor visits, lab tests, hospitalizations and even surgery. In the long run, the cost of correcting a medication error far exceeds the value of your gift cards.

The $85 that you obtained through gift cards could cost you over $9,000 in medical expenses if you are injured by a medication error because a pharmacist never had an opportunity review all your drugs for interactions.

Your pharmacist is the final security check to ensure patients are taking their medications correctly. When you transfer your prescriptions to different pharmacies, it makes it impossible for the pharmacist to review all your medications. To avoid drug interactions and duplications it is important to follow these simple steps:

- ❖ Use only one pharmacy. Do not transfer your prescriptions to several different pharmacies.

❖ Every time you visit a doctor, bring all your medicines with you, including over-the-counter drugs. Have your doctor look at these medications with you.

❖ If you are using a new pharmacy, bring all your medicines with you. Tell the pharmacist if you are taking any over-the-counter medications and if the doctor has given you any drug samples.

❖ Express any concerns you have regarding the price of your medicine to your pharmacist. Show them the prescription coupons from competitors and ask the pharmacy to match the offer. Most pharmacies will match or beat the competitor's offers.

Medications are an investment in your future. Although pharmacy transfer coupons may provide you with gift cards, the cost of treating a drug interaction may be more, even life threatening. It is safer and more cost-effective to take all your prescriptions to the same pharmacy so your pharmacist can make sure your medications are safe to use together.

Mona Jamaldinian will receive the Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Shenandoah University on May 9. She is a current resident of Fairfax. This article was prepared during a clerkship rotation at Consumer Health Information in McLean.

"The pharmacy transfer coupon sends people store hopping, so it's difficult to check for consistency in drug dosage, drug interactions, multiple doctors and fraud. In the long term, it affects the patient's health. I don't think patients realize all the processes and reviews that go into filling one prescription. They try to go to the cheapest pharmacy, so it's more about the money than their overall health."

What Local Pharmacists Think

"The intention of the coupon is to encourage patients to use our pharmacy, but, unfortunately, I think the entire pharmacy coupon transfer process leads to patients using many different pharmacies. This creates an issue with providing accurate information on drug interactions and counseling due to a lack of a complete drug profile."

"The coupon is not effective because patients use them for gift card shopping. This is especially critical in the elderly because they use multiple pharmacies and we can't check for drug interactions. The prescription transfers are usually for a temporary period of time so patients can receive the gift cards, so I don't think it is good for the business either."
