If It's Not One Thing, It's Your Mother.

While the Wanderer's attitude towards most events and holidays is somewhat nonchalant at best, leaning a bit toward cynical at worst, this is not his approach to the day devoted to his dear Mum. She must have a gift, however small, that is for her alone, along with a bit of pampering and a sweet or two. After all, she is the sine qua non of his life. Happy Mother's Day!
