Snow Place Like Home Residents, volunteers come together to dig out after Jonas drops over 20 inches.

THE CONNECTION

Compared to Wednesday night's sneak-attack dusting that caught Virginia Department of Transportation crews unprepared and commuters stuck in hours of slick rush hour gridlock, Fairfax County Supervisors think the full force of Winter Storm Jonas was weathered about as well as possible.

For one thing, projections of the snow beginning in earnest around 3 p.m. Friday and continuing, mostly uninterrupted until Sunday morning while depositing nearly two feet of the white stuff, were pretty spot-on.

"This is one of the first I remember where they got the projections basically right," said Supervisor Dan Storck (D-Mount Vernon). "Timing and everything else was basically as projected. That was really very helpful for all of us to be able to respond."

Storck said he was pleased to hear of "only a fluttering of power outages" compared to the extended lack of power that accompanied the "Snowmageddon" storm of 2010. "That's absolutely the best news," he said.

After receiving reports about lack of plowing service that he then relayed to VDOT, Storck made a few house calls Tuesday to see if crews had responded.

Supervisor Pat Herrity (R-Springfield) said as many as 200 people in Chantilly and Centreville lost power during the storm, but that it was restored in a short period of time.

GIVEN THE VOLUME of snow that fell, Herrity said he was generally positive on the job VDOT did digging out Fairfax County.

"This was clearly a big improvement over

"Growing up in upstate New York, I know something about snow," said Supervisor John Cook (R-Braddock). "So, I had a strategic plan. Plan A, move south. Plan B, have enough kids so they can do the shoveling. Today, I believe I need a Plan C."

the dusting we had Wednesday night," he said.

Herrity himself got behind a neighbor's snow-blower and worked with neighbors in Little Rocky Run to clear a number of driveways and sidewalks for people who either weren't home or had difficulty digging out themselves.

"The happiest thing I've seen, everywhere I've gone, is everyone out helping everyone, just a lot of neighbors helping neighbors," said Herrity. "It's always a good thing when people can come together and help other folks."

Elsewhere in the county, numerous nonprofit organizations, Fairfax County staff and faith communities helped homeless individuals weather the storm, bringing them in from the cold.

Margi Preston, executive director of the

Fairfax-based nonprofit FACETS, said her organization and volunteers at two different faith communities served more than 77 people during the storm.

"The volunteers from both St. Mary's and St. John Neumann were amazing and took excellent care of our hypothermia program participants," Preston said in an email.

Normally, their hypothermia shelter would only be available overnight, one night at a time. For Winter Storm Jonas, FACETS extended the hours.

"There was enough food, planned activities and things to do to keep people entertained for the duration of the storm," said Preston. FACETS shelters were open from 3 p.m. Friday until closing Tuesday morning at 8:30 a.m. They opened back up at 2 p.m. Tuesday and transitioned to new faith communities Monday afternoon.

"This is a lifesaving service that's is a true community-wide effort to address the critical needs of those individuals experiencing homelessness in Fairfax County. The health and safety of these individuals is always our number one concern and we're grateful to have such amazing partners to enable our community to come together for the greater good of our neighbors in need."

DEAN KLEIN, director of the Fairfax County Office to Prevent and End Homelessness, said volunteers and staff from 55 faith communities, FACETS and other nonprofits including Cornerstones in Reston, Northern Virginia Family Service in Falls Church and New Hope Housing Inc. in Mount Vernon "really went above and beyond to ensure homeless individuals were safe."

Klein said staffs at shelters were very well prepared and scheduled experienced individuals who would be able to manage spending several days in close quarters with homeless guests and engage with them in a meaningful way.

"This took a different level of commitment," said Klein. "It was so impressive to see people coming together during this type of storm."

"It's a reminder when you see so many in need of more permanent housing solutions that it's important to push for more affordable, safe housing options," Klein added. "We still have people living in the woods who had to come in from the cold. They need opportunities to allow them to be independent."

Anyone without at least one "passable" lane for traffic in their neighborhood by 6 a.m. Wednesday morning, Jan. 27, can report to VDOT at 1-800-FOR-ROAD or email novainfo@vdot.virginia.gov.

4 Lake Royal Dredging Northeast of Guinea Road and Zion Drive

Royal's ten acres of dredged material will be more difficult to relocate than Woodglen Lake's five acres. Design for the dredging is in its final stages and the project, one of supervisor John Cook's (R-Braddock) highest priorities, his office said, is scheduled to receive funding after July 1, 2016.

Chick-fil-A is moving into a former bank building near the Burke Kohl's. The project is currently under site plan review.

A residence and treatment facility for individuals with disabilities, sitting on 80 acres of state-owned land, is scheduled to close in February 2016. The Commonwealth is in the process of selling the property, and has asked applicants to submit final and best offers by Jan. 7, 2016.

The plan for a 20,687-square-foot addition to the church with private school on 5.16 acres (zoned R-1) is still under active site plan review.

10 Silas Burke House Along Burke Lake Road between Burke Centre Parkway and Shiplett Boulevard

Sunrise Senior Living is planning to build an assisted living facility behind the Silas Burke House, but requires an amendment to the county's Comprehensive Plan that would allow for a higher residential density for the area. The Board of Supervisors approved the project after a July 28 public hearing, so the next step is a site plan review.

The site plan proposed by Christopher Companies for 12 townhomes at the intersection of Burke Lake Rd. and Shiplett Blvd. in Burke is scheduled for a vote to approve rezoning at the next Board of Supervisors meeting on Jan. 12.

The project began with fish relocation to Lake Accotink in November 2014 and is now mostly complete, save some additional planting and clean-up work.

Snow on Roof Breaks Sprinkler Pipe at Heatherwood

Fairfax County Fire and Rescue responded to Heatherwood Retirement Community in Burke Saturday night after a sprinkler pipe burst due to heavy snow on the structure's roof.

A one-inch sag in the roof caused the pipe to break and set off an alarm, said

Supervisor Pat Herrity (R-Springfield).

Rescue workers were able to reinforce the roof and the building inspector determined it wasn't necessary to evacuate residents.

School Board Approves Five-Year $777 million Capital Improvement Plan

While the rest of Fairfax County hunkered down in preparation for Winter Storm Jonas' Friday arrival, members of the School Board held their business meeting as scheduled on Jan. 21 and approved a five-year Capital Improvement Plan requiring $777 million.

Applying to Fiscal Year 2017 through 2021, the plan supports four new elementary schools and one new high school, as well as "capacity enhancements" and renovations for existing schools.

The robust school system has been growing by around 2,400 students each year since the 2009-2010 school year, according to a release from Fairfax County Public Schools. The Capital Improvement Plan figures a total system population reaching roughly 189,000 students by the 2020-2021 school year.

"The school system struggles to provide sufficient capacity in our schools," Superintendent Karen Garza said in a letter accompanying a presentation of the plan. "Despite the planned additional capacity intended to address projected needs, uneven enrollment growth throughout the county will necessitate the continuation of small- and large-scale boundary adjustments to take advantage of available capacity whenever it is practicable to do so."

Funding for a portion of the plan's requirement has already been approved in the 2015 School Bond Referendum and other earlier referenda, about $429 million worth.

Projects already covered under that funding include:

- ❖ Gym at Bailey's Upper Elementary School for the Arts and Sciences

- ❖ New elementary school in the Route 1 corridor to help with overcrowding in the Groveton-Hybla Valley area

- ❖ Expansion and renovation of Fort Belvoir Elementary School

- ❖ Additions to South Lakes High School and Westbriar Elementary School

- ❖ Three modular addition relocations

"This CIP addresses some of our critical needs and will help relieve crowding in some of our existing schools," said Pat Hynes, School Board Chairman.

"We are particularly challenged by growth in certain areas of the county and higher growth rates among middle and high school students, requiring us to examine a variety of solutions, including temporary classrooms, modular additions and boundary adjustments. Any boundary adjustments would be discussed and decided with considerable input from the community."

That leaves $347 million of the plan unfunded. Advertised projects without funding currently include:

- ❖ Construction of a new elementary school in the northwest area of Fairfax County

- ❖ Elementary school in the Fairfax-Oakton area

- ❖ High school by the end of Metro Silver Line, on the west end of the County

- ❖ Additions to two high schools and one middle school

- ❖ One modular addition relocation

More details about the Fairfax County Public Schools Capital Improvement Program are available online at www.fcps.edu/fts/planning/cip.shtml.

'Disappointing, Not Surprising'

Bills to rein in predatory lending die in Senate committee.

Have you ever paid 36 percent interest on a loan or credit card? Not likely. It's an outrageous rate, especially given that the actual cost of money is close to zero right now.

But right now, some people in Northern Virginia are paying more than 200 percent on loans secured by their car title. These are people who are both financially desperate and financially unsophisticated, who likely assume that regulation would keep a lender from bleeding them dry with unrestricted interest rates.

Predatory lending is a local issue, with car title lenders congregating in lower income areas like along Route 1 in the Mount Vernon area, and also queuing up near the border with Prince George's County, Md., where car title lending is illegal.

Earlier this week, a Virginia Senate committee killed a bill that would have capped consumer loan interest rates at 36 percent. It's hard to believe, but right now there are no limits to the interest rates that can be charged in Virginia. And car title lenders, which are not consumer loans, often have effective interest rates of more than 200 percent.

"Predatory lending is a major problem in the U.S. 1 Corridor," said Sen. Scott Surovell (D-36), who introduced the failed legislation to curb predatory lending. "Car title lenders have been abusing this loophole by charging rates over 200 percent. ... To rein in car title lender bait and switch tactics, I am proposing to limit interest rates on consumer finance loans at 36 percent." But that effort died in a Virginia Senate Committee this week.

Between 2010, when the Virginia General Assembly gave the green light to the car title lending industry, the total number of locations more than doubled from 184 to 395.

Some legislators claim this is a free market and personal responsibility issue, that people who have no other options should be able to turn to high interest lending as a last resort. But most people who turn to these loans would be better off without this last resort.

"It's a trap, and although it's presented as a loan it's really loan-sharking," said Jay Speech, executive director of the Virginia Poverty Law Center. "People who get into this end up much worse off than when they started."

We all pay the price when an industry preys on the poor. People who lose their cars can lose their jobs, then relying on the frayed and inadequate safety net.

Michael Pope, who wrote about car title lending abuses when he worked for the Connection and Gazette Packet, recently completed a multi-part investigative series on predatory lending for WAMU, which you can listen to here: http://wamu.org/the\_debt\_trap

When his series concluded, the message of the damage of predatory lending seemed to resonate. Legislation to rein in the abuses of 200 percent interest seemed destined to make a difference.

This year, it will not.

Attorney General Mark Herring tweeted, "disappointing, not surprising" on Monday in response to the news that all four bills that sought to limit predatory lending were voted down in committee. Disappointing, but not surprising. A sad commentary.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sex Trafficking Was Illegal for Hundreds of Years

To the Editor:

Your article, "Money, Lax Laws Draw Sex Traffickers" (Connection, January 21-27) states "Last year, before the state of Virginia passed its first sex trafficking laws, SB 1188 and HB 1964, it was the last state in the United States with any sex trafficking legislation." The headline and this second paragraph would make one think that sex trafficking was not illegal in Virginia. This notion is utterly false. It has been illegal for hundreds of years. Just look at the Virginia Code: Article 2.1 Crimes by Gangs, Article 3 Kidnapping and Related Offenses, Article 4 Assaults and Bodily Woundings, Article 6 Extortion and Other Threats, and Article 7 Criminal Sexual Assault. Also remember, in 1994, Virginia eliminated parole. I can assure you that anyone convicted of human trafficking related felonies under these articles does lots and lots of prison time.

Human trafficking has always been illegal. In fact, a number of years ago, an organization made a ridiculous accusation that Virginia's laws were weak on human trafficking. I commissioned a study by the Virginia State Crime Commission to look at every act this organization alleged was involved in human trafficking to see if there were any gaps in our laws. The result of the study showed that every single act was already illegal except for withholding a passport to force a person into prostitution. So we made that a felony.

The article says that HB 1964 and SB 1188 were our first human trafficking laws. Our first human trafficking laws were passed in the 1600s. What these two bills did was increase punishments on certain crimes that can be labeled as "human trafficking." We were very proud to have passed them. But all the acts were already illegal.

People can castigate Virginia on a number of issues. We don't have the same welfare benefits as other states, and because of our low tax rate, we don't have the same level of services as other states.

However, I can assure you that being weak on crime is certainly not a claim that applies to Virginia.

Maintaining Bike Trails

To the Editor:

I am writing to express my concern that the bike trails in our community are not being properly maintained by the county of Fairfax.

Part of what makes Fairfax Station a great place to live is the biking trails, they encourage people to be active and enjoy nature.

I attended a public meeting where I asked how much money the county is spending on maintaining bike trails. I was surprised to hear that the budget doesn't include money for maintaining of the bike trails. Over the years I have noticed the bike trails have become more cracked and bumpy due to normal wear and tear. If they become deteriorated to the point of not being able to enjoy biking and walking on them then our quality of life will suffer.

Pet Photos for the Pet Connection

The Pet Connection, a twice-yearly special edition, will publish on Feb. 24, and photos and stories of your pets with you and your family should be submitted by Feb. 17.

We invite you to send us stories about your pets, photos of you and/or your family with your cats, dogs, llamas, alpacas, hamsters, snakes, lizards, frogs, rabbits, or whatever other creatures share your home or yard with you.

Tell us the story of a special bond between a child and a dog, the story of how you came to adopt your pet, or examples of amazing feats of your creatures. Do you volunteer at an animal shelter or therapeutic riding center or take your pet to visit people in a nursing home? Does your business have a pet? Is your business about pets? Have you helped to train an assistance dog? Do you or someone in your family depend on an assistance dog?

Or take this opportunity to memorialize a beloved pet you have lost.

Just a cute photo is fine too. Our favorite pictures include both pets and humans.

Please tell us a little bit about your creature, identify everyone in the photo, give a brief description what is happening in the photo, and include address and phone number (we will not publish your address or phone number, just your town name).

Email to south@connectionnewspapers.com or online at www.connectionnewspapers.com/pets.

Paradise for Chocolate Lovers

Fairfax's annual festival is Feb. 6-7.

BY BONNIE HOBBS
THE CONNECTION

When it comes to chocolate, the City of Fairfax does it up right. Featuring everything from cakes to cookies, cupcakes, candy, ice cream and fudge, its 24th annual Chocolate Lovers Festival will be held Saturday, Feb. 6, from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., and Sunday, Feb. 7, from noon-4 p.m.

"After a tough snowstorm, nothing will put a smile on the faces of children and adults alike than chocolate," said Fairfax Mayor Scott Silverthorne. "The City's annual Chocolate Lovers Festival has become a must-attend event and was recognized last year as one of the best food festivals in Virginia by Virginia Living Magazine. If you're looking for fun, great food and a special way to celebrate Valentine's Day early, the City of Fairfax is the place to be."

One of the highlights is the Taste of Chocolate, where attendees purchase samples of a multitude of mouthwatering, chocolate treats from two floors full of vendors in Old Town Hall. Another is the Chocolate Challenge in which both professionals and home cooks compete to see who can make the most beautiful and creative chocolate sculptures, cakes and cupcakes.

There is even a chocolate-themed movie, plus chocolate-chip pancakes at the fire station and a slew of fun-filled activities for both children and adults, all day long. And the first event actually begins a week in advance. It is the Sweet History Walking Tour, this Saturday, Jan. 30, from 4:30-6 p.m., in Old Town Fairfax's Historic District.

It starts at the Ratcliffe Allison House, 10209 Main St., and includes Old Town Hall, Historic Fairfax County Courthouse and the Ford House and ends at De Clieu Coffee with complimentary hot chocolate.

Cost is $10/person and participants should bring flashlights. With one paying adult, one child 5 and under is free. Pre-registration is required; go to www.chocolatefestival.net; click on "Schedule of Events" and then "Sweet History Walking Tour."

Then on Feb. 6-7 will be a full slate of activities including face-painting, musical performances, fairytales, a fire-safety puppet show, a Chocolate Caper mock trial, cupcake-decorating, magic, juggling and open houses in historic buildings. All venues are handicap-accessible, and the Chocolate Express will provide free, shuttle service between event locations. It will run Feb. 6, from 9:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m., and Feb. 7, from 11:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Pancakes, Taste Of Chocolate

The fun kicks off Saturday, Feb. 6, at Fire Station 3, at 4081 University Drive, with the annual, Kiwanis Club of Fairfax Pancake Breakfast. From 8 a.m.-1 p.m., enjoy regular or chocolate-chip pancakes, plus sausage, coffee, juice and milk. Cost is $8, adults; $4, children ages 4-10. Children 3 and under eat free with a paying adult (limit two children per adult). Face painting will be available for $2/child.

The festival's centerpiece, the Taste of Chocolate, will be held Feb. 6, from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., and Feb. 7, from noon-4 p.m., in Old Town Hall, 3999 University Drive (corner of Main Street and University Drive). Strollers may be left on the building's front porch; a fully accessible entrance is at the door on Main Street.

Admission is free; visitors buy pogs for $1 each and then browse the vendors' tables to see the wide array of chocolate treats being offered. They pay for their treats in pogs and may buy as many pogs as they want from roaming volunteers in red aprons.

The variety of goodies is a chocolate lover's dream-come-true. There are chocolate candies, bars, cakes and fudge, chocolate-covered strawberries and ice cream. And one of the biggest hits each year are the chocolate fountains into which customers may dip fruit, cream-filled doughnut holes or marshmallows.

This year's vendors include: C & D Sweets, CakeLove, Cakes by Shelby, Cameron's Coffee & Chocolates, Capitol Chocolate Fountains; Chocotenago, Confection Connection, Dave's Candy Kitchen, El Ceibo Chocolate, Fair Trade Winds, Fluffy Thoughts Cakes, Le Papiyon Chocolatier, Mike's Fudge, Sugar Mama's Ice Cream, The Capital Candy Jar, The Chocolatier's Palette, Virginia Chocolate Co. and Xtreme Ice Cream.

Chocolate Challenge

The Chocolate Challenge is a display of creative, whimsical and imaginative chocolate cakes, cupcakes and sculptures. It takes place at the Nutrition Kitchen, 3950 University Drive, and runs Feb. 6, from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., and Feb. 7, from noon-4 p.m. Admission is $1/adult; children under 18 are free. A designated stroller-parking area is outside the building.

Both professionals and amateurs participate, and judges and visitors judge them in various categories. Visitors may use their admission ticket to vote for the People's Choice Award winner and also participate in the silent action of challenge entries, plus items from local businesses. Donated cakes and other items will be open for silent-auction bidding through Feb. 7 at 2:30 p.m. To enter the Chocolate Challenge, go to www.chocolatefestival.net and click on "applications" by Feb. 3.

Grant Recipients

Each year, the Chocolate Lovers Festival Committee donates part of the proceeds raised during the festival to charity. This year's four grant recipients are:

- ❖ City of Fairfax Police Cops & Kids Day: It is focused on building stronger relationships between members of the police department and families within the community. Children and parents watch demonstrations conducted by the Criminal Investigation Division, Emergency Services Team, K9 Unit, Bike Patrol Unit, and Animal Control Officers.

- ❖ City of Fairfax Police Kids Safety Saturday: It is a fun-filled afternoon involving lessons in pedestrian, skateboard and beginner driver-safety awareness for children and parents. Bicycle-cone safety courses led by certified, mountain-bike officers are available, as are bike-safety inspections and minor equipment adjustments.

- ❖ Fairfax Lions Club: It has provided services to local people in need, especially those with impaired vision. A recent vision screening at a City of Fairfax school discovered school children with reduced vision, but their parents can't afford corrective glasses for them. So the Lions are helping out.

- ❖ Pets Bring Joy: Its mission is to provide help and hope to small, grassroots, animal rescuers in Fairfax County and the surrounding area by finding loving, permanent homes for previously at-risk homeless animals in their care.

And PBJ's Fuzzies for Seniors program sponsors placement of companion animals with senior citizens.

LB's Jones Had First Snow Driving Experience

Lake Braddock senior Caroline Jones, a two-time second-team all-region catcher, will play softball at Villanova University.

Q: In what city do you live?

A: Fairfax Station.

Q: How did the amount of snowfall in your neighborhood compare to what you thought would fall?

A: I am always the person that underestimates how much snowfall we are actually going to get, so I guess it didn't really register with me that we had a blizzard coming and that we were going to be getting this much snow. I was expecting around a foot or so, but when it kept snowing and I watched it pile up on my back deck, I knew I was way off on how much we were actually going to get.

Q: What, if any, preparations did you and your family make for the storm?

A: My family went to the gas station and filled up all of our cars and got gas for the snow blower as well. Also, my mom went to the grocery store and bought the necessities, while also stocking up on my favorites: Dr. Pepper, oatmeal and bananas.

Q: What did you do to pass the time during the storm?

A: To pass the time during the snowstorm I spent most of my time on homework as I had a government project that had to be submitted electronically on Monday. But when I wasn't doing homework, I was helping to clear off my driveway of all the snow and spending time with my family.

Q: Did you play in the snow? If so, what did you do?

A: I did play in the snow! I have two elementary-aged kids that live across the street from me, so I went sledding with them down my street, made snow angels, and had a snowball fight. One of my favorite parts of a snowstorm is when it is over and all the neighbors are outside clearing off their driveways. It is so great to see everyone coming together to help one another and to catch up with people you haven't talked to in a while.

Q: Were you able to exercise/practice during the storm? If so, what did you do?

A: The Wednesday before the blizzard hit, about 1 inch of snow fell and I was at practice out past Dulles Airport when that started falling. So it took me about 2 1/2 hours to get home that night and that was the first time I had ever driven in snow before, so that was definitely an adventure I will never forget. When the blizzard hit I was limited on what I could do as far as softball goes because I don't have a place inside my house that I could throw or hit. But once my driveway was clear, I was back outside doing tee work and preparing for the spring season.

Snowstorm Q&A

A snowstorm caused Fairfax County Public Schools to cancel classes and athletic events from Thursday, Jan. 21 through Wednesday, Jan. 27. Some areas received more than 20 inches of snow during the weekend, according to the National Weather Service, creating a break from competition for local high school athletes. Some of them shared their storm experience via email Q&A with The Connection.

Q: Do you play a winter sport at Lake Braddock? If not, are you preparing for the softball season?

A: I played varsity basketball for Lake Braddock my freshman and sophomore year, but decided junior year that I was going to focus all my efforts on softball. I am very excited about this spring season and am working hard to be the best teammate and player I can be. I have spent a lot of time in the cages this winter working on my swing and also am working to develop my outfield skills as well. When I'm not training, I go to Zumba to have fun and keep my cardio up. I know all the girls on the Lake Braddock team have worked extremely hard this offseason and we are excited to take the field together this spring and compete for a championship.

Senior guard Seamus Maloney and the Woodson boys' basketball team will look to snap a three-game losing skid when games resume following the recent snowstorm.

Woodson's Maloney Went Sledding

Woodson senior guard Seamus Maloney who scored 14 points in an overtime loss to T.C. Williams on Jan. 19.

Q: In what city do you live?

A: Fairfax.

Q: How did the amount of snowfall in your neighborhood compare to what you thought would fall?

A: It was more than I expected.

Q: What, if any, preparations did you and your family make for the storm?

A: We stacked up on food and made sure we were shoveling every few hours so the snow didn't build up.

Q: What did you do to pass the time during the storm?

A: I went sledding a decent amount with some of my teammates and friends. That was pretty fun.

Q: Were you able to exercise/practice during the storm? If so, what did you do?

A: My friends and I got shots up Friday night when the storm began. For the next few days I couldn't get to a gym so I just lifted and worked on my handles in my basement. On Sunday I got shots up with my friend Andrew Dinh and Matt Ayoub at Matt's house.

Q: Are you interested in playing college basketball? What are your college plans?

A: I'm talking to a few schools right now but I'm not 100 percent sure what I want to do yet.

Q: This is your first season as a varsity starter, correct? What has the transition been like moving from reserve to starter?

A: I've had to take more of a leadership role this year. Last year I was solely a role player, but this year I've had to become more of a scorer and distributor on the court.

Q: What will it take for the team to come back strong after the storm layoff?

A: We've got to be ready to play right when we get back because we will probably have back-to-back games next week. Most of the guys have been working out too so we should be ready.

Positive 2015 Real Estate Market Spurs Upbeat Outlook for the New Year

Experts predict continuing positive trend.

BY ANDREA WORKER
THE CONNECTION

The final figures are in, and it looks like the 2015 local housing market was a modest winner. Coming off a banner 2013, the 2014 market left buyers, sellers, agents, brokers and lenders all feeling a bit edgy when the previous year's successes did not spill over into the next year. But despite a bit of a rollercoaster ride, 2015 closed with annual regional sales 9.4 percent higher than 2014 – their highest since 2006. Data for the region, that includes the general Metro area, as well as specifics for Fairfax and Arlington counties, the cities of Fairfax, Falls Church and Alexandria, and the towns of Herndon, Vienna and Clifton is supplied by RealEstate Business Intelligence, L.L.C. (RBI), an arm of the local MLS system.

In the first half of the year the normal buying pattern was disrupted by a number of factors, not the least being the long and difficult winter which pushed the start of the spring market from late January or February to mid-March.

"The hottest real estate season lost a solid month of sales," said Reston-based Keller Williams agent Andy Krumholz. "Then it ended earlier than normal, as well," he added.

"Normally lasting until late June before the summer slowdown, this past year the market went to sleep in May and stayed that way through Labor Day."

TO EVERYONE'S RELIEF, the second half of the year saw a real pick up in real estate action. Virgil Frizzell, the Northern Virginia Association of Realtors (NVAR) chairman of the board noted "a strong fall market and sometimes a flurry of bidding wars" that helped overcome the slow start, even with the jitters that came as the world waited for the anticipated increase in the Fed Funds Rate by the Federal Reserve, and the adjustments to be made as new closing laws went into effect.

According to the RBI data, Fairfax County had the most closed sales in 2015, increasing 9.6 percent over 2014. Alexandria came in with a 9.4 percent increase, Fairfax City with 7.9 percent, Arlington with 3.9 percent and Falls Church with 3.8 percent.

Among the jurisdictions, Fairfax County also saw the highest increase in new listings, up 14.6 percent over the previous year, a trend that Anita Lasansky, CRB, managing broker-vice president Long and Foster Realtors in North Reston can attest to. "We're a 60 percent/40 percent listing versus sales organization and it was a brisk year for us," she said, although at the moment "there's not a lot of inventory." Chairman

Andy Krumholz, Agent Keller Williams Reston: "The improving economic metrics have many pundits feeling optimistic about 2016. I expect most areas to experience a 3-4 percent price improvement."

Frizzell agrees that "our region could always benefit from affordably priced new homes that will help our renter population make the move to home ownership."

In terms of sales pricing, Lasansky's opinion is that it was an almost neutral market year. "Buyers couldn't 'steal' a house, but sellers couldn't easily sell a property not in good condition.

There was quite a bit of negotiating during many of the transactions." Krumholz agreed with that assessment. "Even as inventory increased and some sellers were adjusting their sales price expectations, buyers were remaining selective. Homes that needed repairs or improvements languished on the market."

Anita Lasansky, CRB managing broker-vice president, Long and Foster North Reston: "The current stock market fluctuations could be a good thing for the local real estate market. Housing is looking like a pretty good bet."

The RBI numbers show that both Lasansky and Krumholz were right in their thoughts about pricing and the average days on the market (DOM) of a given property. The region saw only a 1.1 percent increase in the median sales price. Behind D.C., Arlington County and Alexandria City led the way, with increases over 4 percent. In Fairfax County median sales prices were 3.2 percent higher in 2015 than in 2014. Only Falls Church saw a year-over-year decrease, dropping 1.4 percent, but keeping the "most expensive location crown" among the Northern Virginia locales with a 2015 median sales price of $690,000. At 22, days on the market increased slightly for all of the areas analyzed, but even those increases did not depress the overall sense of market health, since the two-day increase in the median DOM from 2014 is still an impressive 41 days less than the DOM high of 68 in 2008, and not far off the lowest DOM level recorded in the past decade of 15 days in 2013.

Virgil Frizzell, Chairman of the Board Northern Virginia Association of Realtors: "The 2016 market is a dynamic situation, but I think all the indicators are there for a positive year."

SO WHAT DO THE EXPERTS take from this plethora of information as they look to the 2016 market? NVAR CEO Ryan T. Conrad believes the positive trends will continue throughout the year.

"Our region's sales pace last year reflected that there was homebuyer confidence," he stated in a recent NVAR press release, and "serious homebuyers will understand that their buying power will be strongest in the early part of the year" considering further expected rate hikes from the Federal Reserve.

Lasansky, with her 40 years of local experience, is looking at 2016 to be "as good, if not better, than 2015." Asked if she saw the current Wall Street woes as a challenge to the market, she replied the effect might just be the opposite. "With interest rates still so low, the volatility of the stock market might just steer people more toward real estate as the safer bet." Lasansky also feels that the recent easing of some of the regulations and requirements could make homebuying more of a possibility, especially for younger and first-time buyers.

Frizzell is equally positive about the 2016 outlook. "Millennials are starting to make the move," he stated. Several of his rental clients are now on the hunt for homes of their own.

Armed with the RBI data, his own expertise, and encouraging information provided from the George Mason University Center for Regional Analysis, Frizzell thinks that continued employment growth and a more balanced economy in the region might make 2016 "one of the best years ever."
