Archery Hunting of Deer Begins in County Parks

The Fairfax County Deer Management Archery Program, conducted in parks and other locations throughout the county, will run through Saturday, Feb. 23.

The archery program began in FY 2010 and is part of an integrated Deer Management Program to reduce and stabilize the white-tailed deer population in Fairfax County in efforts to minimize safety and health hazards related to an overabundance of deer. These impacts include deer-vehicle collisions, potential spread of diseases, and environmental damage attributed to deer that can impact the ecosystem.

The program was approved by the Board of Supervisors in 2000 and is recognized as a safe and efficient method of deer population control by the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Because of its track record of safety, archery is a preferred deer management method in Fairfax County, according to county officials; archery is a compatible use with residential areas and community parks, allowing for deer population management in urban and suburban areas.

Since Virginia began tracking hunting injuries in 1959, no bystanders have been injured by an archer hunting deer anywhere in the Commonwealth.

Last year, 95 percent of the total deer harvests in the Fairfax County Deer Management Program were through the use of archery.

Fairfax County's Archery Program standards require that all archers meet state hunter licensing, education and safety requirements and must pass qualifications to demonstrate skill and marksmanship, in addition to carrying program identification. Archers are also required to have completed additional training through the International Bowhunter Education Program to participate in the Fairfax County Deer Management Program.

All archers participating in the program must also pass a criminal background check.

Parks remain open to the public during the archery program. Fluorescent orange signs are posted in parks where hunting is authorized. Hunters will only hunt from elevated tree stands; hunting from the ground level is prohibited in county parks.

Tree stands must not be located closer than 100 feet from property lines or closer than 50 feet from established park trails. Archers are not allowed on private property without permission by the owner or tenant.

Archers are approved to hunt at assigned sites Monday through Saturday during legal hunting hours, 30 minutes prior to sunrise until 30 minutes after sunset.

No hunting is allowed on Sundays in county parks.

Fairfax County to Hold Well Water Clinic

Do you know what's in your drinking water? While public water supplies are tested daily for contaminants, most private water supplies, like wells and springs, are rarely tested. It is recommended that well owners test their water at least annually for bacteria and nitrates. Learn about the quality of your water and how to care for your water system at the Fairfax County Well Water Clinic . Pre-registration is required, register online: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/neighborhood-community-services/virginia-cooperative-extension

There is a $55 registration fee which covers the cost of a water quality test which analyzes a sample of your home's drinking water for 14 different chemical and bacteriological constituents. Comparable tests undertaken through a private commercial lab can cost more than $300. Payment can be made via check or money order made payable to Treasurer, Virginia Tech.

County's 275th Anniversary Continues

With motorcycle charity ride.

BY SHARON BULOVA
CHAIRMAN,
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

If you enjoyed Fairfax County's 275th Anniversary Celebration last year, the adventure continues! Lord Nicholas Fairfax (a direct descendent of our county's namesake) will be back in town on Sept. 22-25, 2018 to lead a motorcycle charity excursion to benefit four local charities here in Fairfax County: Bethlehem Baptist Church Community Support Program, Fairfax County Sheriff's Office Project Lifesaver, Fairfax-Mason Research Fund at George Mason University, and The Lamb Center.

If you are a history buff and/or motorcycle enthusiast, this event is for you. Participants can ride via motorcycle or car on a one-day, two-day or four-day trip around the boundaries of the original Fairfax Land Grant. This vast and beautiful area, which has been associated with the Fairfax family since the late 1600s, spans between the Potomac and Rappahannock rivers from the Chesapeake Bay to the Fairfax Stone in West Virginia. Along the way, there will be opportunities for camping, seeing multiple historic sites, witnessing historic sign unveilings, hearing stories from colonial era re-enactment groups, and meeting plenty of great people who share of love of Fairfax history. The ride kicks off at the Patriot Harley-Davidson store in the City of Fairfax on Sept. 22 at 8 a.m.

To register for the Lord Fairfax Charity Ride and to make a donation to the charity partners, please visit www.lordfairfaxride.org.

GOP Tax Scheme Hurts Homeowners

BY GERALD E. CONNOLLY
U.S. REPRESENTATIVE
(D-11)

President Trump and Republicans in Congress rammed their tax scheme through Congress without a single hearing or considering any Democratic amendments. Unlike many members of Congress, I met with community stakeholders and held a public roundtable to hear firsthand how the bill would affect our region. Overwhelmingly, I was told the bill would hit most Northern Virginian taxpayers hard in their pocketbooks. On top of that, it added $1.9 trillion to the deficit, completely unpaid for.

In the months since President Trump signed the new Republican tax plan into law, the fallout for Northern Virginians has become clear. A new report, prepared by the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee, confirms our worst fears and finds the Republican tax law will disproportionately hurt Northern Virginia homeowners' biggest asset — their homes.

The report details how the new law's changes to the mortgage interest deduction, home equity loan deduction, and state and local income tax deduction will result in tax increases for many families in our region.

Homes are one of the largest source of savings for American families, and home equity loans are often the most affordable way for these families to obtain credit. The proceeds from these loans are often used to pay for important expenses such as college tuition and medical expenses. Prior to the GOP tax law, interest on these loans was tax deductible. Under the new law, those deductions are now limited exclusively to home improvements.

This means none of the approximately 547,600 homeowners currently living in Northern Virginia will be allowed to claim deductions for expenses like an unexpected medical emergency. On top of that, beginning in 2018, nearly 106,800 homeowners in our area with existing home equity loans will not be allowed to claim full home equity interest deductions as they've done in the past.

Another concern for many of our neighbors is that the new law caps state and local tax deductions (SALT) at $10,000. In Virginia, we have the nation's fourth highest percentage of tax filers claiming the SALT deduction in the country. More than 1.5 million households claim $16.5 billion in SALT deductions for an average deduction of $11,288 per household. Fairfax County residents alone claim nearly $4.62 billion in these deductions. However, under the new tax law, 174,100 homeowners in Northern Virginia will lose the ability to deduct the full amount of their property taxes.

These findings are not hypothetical. This report lays out the real-world impacts of a misguided law that will harm Northern Virginia families. To make matters worse, just last week the President decided to cancel a scheduled federal employee pay increase citing concerns about the deficit. His tax bill exploded the deficit, and now he is trying to balance the budget on the backs of federal workers.

As the former chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, I know how important the housing market is to our region. By targeting the housing market and home values, the new tax law has serious consequences for our community. It puts additional pressure on local government budgets and crowds out investment in our local roads, our first responders, and our education system. We should be protecting those investments at all costs, not undermining them so billionaires get another handout.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sanctuary for Deer?

To the Editor:

Reading your article, Fairfax Station: A sanctuary (Connection, August 23-29, 2018), I would like to comment that, for the most part, residents like myself appreciate the beauty of nature that abounds in this area: the birds, the raccoons, the occasional fox and the deer. We love the trees and the privacy provided by the wooded areas, yet have accessibility to resources needed for daily living.

However, as I gaze at the serenity of a doe and her small fawn, a few feet from her, I cannot help but be saddened by the fact that these creatures are not really in a sanctuary. They may soon be slaughtered by hunters using an archaic and inhumane method (bows and arrows) as they venture toward Burke Lake Park. This practice does not discriminate regarding bucks, nursing does or their fawns (which if not killed will be left to starve). It would be more of a sanctuary if this barbaric practice would be replaced by humane wildlife management practices, which could include some sterilization projects or even sharp shooting. These practices are limited to a week or two rather than the current stalking and killing or wounding which last nearly 8 months. A deer sterilization project like the one done in Fairfax City could be conducted in one or two parks and be sponsored by contributions to the parks designated for non-lethal wildlife management programs.

Design Upgrades for Fall

Minor elements can make an major impact as seasons change.

BY MARILYN CAMPBELL

As the time of year where more time is spent indoors slowly approaches, sprucing up an interior space can help ease the transition. From pillows and candles to wreaths and area rugs, local designers show how small touches can make a big impact as seasons change.

A new rug can set the tone for an entire room. "I just finished a living room where we added a luxurious leather sofa that's both elegant and timeless," said designer Sally Kane of Chantilly. "There is a loveseat in a chintz fabric and circular rug with warm shades of brown beige and turquoise. It's almost too pretty to walk on and can be changed out as the seasons change. It shows how adding the right rug can elevate a room."

Throw pillows in bold hues can add a burst of autumn color into a space, easing it from summer to fall. "I'm currently working on a family room where a deep, hunter green is the base color," said Todd Granger, interior designer and design graduate students at Marymount University. "I'm adding throw pillows with a yellow palette, including mustard, citrus and chartreuse."

"The Pantone color of the year for 2018 was Ultra Violet and I'm definitely seeing bold, deep purples being used this fall in interior design," continued Granger. "I'm incorporating them in spaces for my clients who appreciate bold colors. Buying throw pillows is an easy and inexpensive way to make your space match the season."

Throw pillows in bold autumn colors can add warmth to a space as the season changes from summer to fall.

Table linens and serveware are a simple way to transition to fall when entertaining, advises Alexandria-based interior designer Beth Mahoney. "For my own home I purchased some dark blue, monogrammed linen napkins that pick up a shade of blue in my china pattern," she said. "Placemats, tablecloths and candles are all inexpensive things that can make an big impact when it comes to changing seasons."

A wreath in the rich autumnal colors hanging on the front door is a definite harbinger of fall, adds Mahoney. "Wreaths made with pretty combinations of fall foliage like pine cones, berries and even pumpkins can be hung in a foyer or the front door," she said. "Gooseberry, lavender and herbs like sage and bay also make great additions to a wreath."

Accessories in warm, rich shades can help transition a home's interior from summer to autumn.

Kiddie Academy Opens In North Springfield

West Springfield alumni is running the academy with his wife.

BY MIKE SALMON
THE CONNECTION

Pony rides and fire trucks were featured in the grand opening of the new Kiddie Academy off Edsall Road in North Springfield on Saturday, Sept. 8. The ribbon cutting had all the staples that ribbon cuttings have, such as elected officials, company managers and a big pair of scissors that screams “We are now open,” even though they had a soft opening in August.

Joseph Haggerty, the president and CEO of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce was there for the big moment. With the location in an office park right off I-395, they are reaching out to clientele in the office park or on their way to other suburban locations in the area. “Lots of people are coming to work here,” said Haggerty.

That proximity to the many of- fice buildings around Shawnee Road and Cherokee Boulevard were considerations when husband and wife team Lou and Fantana Campbell researched this area. “That was always our business model,” Lou Campbell said. The presence of child care may be an incentive for growth too. “We see it as an incentive to bring businesses here,” he said. Lou Campbell is an alumnus of West Springfield High School and Fantana came from Afghanistan and went to high school in New York. Kiddie Academy is a nationwide pre-kindergarten child care company where they specialize in developmentally appropriate curriculum, technology education, character education, and health and fitness. Prices range from $440 a week for a full day to $83 for an after school package.

At the academy there is room for 137 children, and so far they have enrolled 30 children.

Music icon The Manhattan Transfer headlines this year’s “ARTS By George!” The group has been a source for delectable pop and jazz hits for more than four decades bringing a melodic flair and jazz-infused vocals to a performance. The group has earned multiple Grammy Awards, is an inductee into The Vocal Group Hall of Fame and recipient of The National Music Council’s American Eagle Award.

A Declaration of Semi Independence

By KENNETH B. LOURIE

Now that I've spent the last two publishing weeks moaning and groaning about my potentially life-changing CT scan results from my upcoming Sept. 26 scan, I think it's time to buck up, don't you? I mean, how long can I continue to drone on before I bore even myself? Talk about putting the cart before the horse, I'm putting myself before the cart.

If I've learned/assimilated anything in my nine and half cancer years, it is that waiting for results rather than presuming or anticipating and/or especially overreacting to them in advance of anything actually being confirmed as negative/problematic is, highly recommended. Much easier said than done I understand, but the alternative "batters no parsnips," to quote Mrs. Patmore from the Downton Abbey kitchen.

And if one has been compromised, as I have been by a "terminal" diagnosis (2/27/09), followed by years of chemotherapy and the variety of associated side effects, wasting any time or energy on pursuits which don't enhance life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, is a pursuit not worth pursuing.

Moreover, given how little control one has over the entire cancer experience - from initial screening/testing/diagnosing/staging to lab-testing/treating/maybe even "surgerizing" (to use of my late father's made-up words), it would seem the sooner the patient/survivor accepts and sort of embraces their place in the cancer feedback loop, the better. Otherwise, the process likely becomes even more excruciating than it already is.

The problem is that cancer can be, shall we say, uncooperative.

Adding to its "uncooperativeness" is its effect on a patient (yours truly) who has lived years beyond the presumptive treatment guidelines oncologists refer to. Generally speaking, stage IV, non-small cell lung cancer survivors of nearly 10 years are few and far between so there's very little empirical evidence/information available advising oncologists how to treat the anomaly. (I've been called worse.)

They're challenged enough determining how to treat the 234,030 new cases projected for 2018 (according to the American Cancer Society). When it comes to treating an old case - mine, common sense and trying to not make things worse seems as much a reasonable course of action as any, especially as I try not to count the days until my next scan. It will get here soon enough - or not - so I see no advantage in obsessing about it and staring at the calendar.

Oddly enough, outliving one's prognosis by as many years as I have presents its own peculiar set of problems.

I never thought I'd be quoting/invoking a Doris Day song but, "Que sera, sera, Whatever will be, will be, The future's not ours to see, Que sera, sera. What will be, will be." And though I realize Doris wasn't singing about cancer per se, it was more so about life.

Nevertheless, if there's one subject that us cancer patients could use all the uplifting lyrics sung and/or talked about, it is words which can minimize the slings and arrows of the outrageous misfortune which has befallen us and to help find a way to make the best of the extraordinarily difficult circumstances life has us living.

So what if I have to wait a month for the other shoe to potentially drop? I'm alive and reasonably well. Besides, there's no guarantee that the shoe dropping will be the cancer shoe. Maybe it will be the non-cancer shoe?

Regardless, whatever shoe drops on or about Sept. 26, I'll be there to pick it up, find some bootstraps, buckle up and get on with it.
